

JAN KARSKI'S
CENTENNIAL
2014: THE YEAR OF JAN KARSKI

1914 HUMANITY'S
2014 HERO

JAN KARSKI DAYS IN CHICAGO

SEPTEMBER 18-21, 2014

EXHIBITION OPENS

Thursday, September 18th

The World Knew: Jan Karski's Mission for Humanity at the Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center
Skokie, through January 25, 2015

JAN KARSKI AT THE THEATER

Saturday, September 20th, 2:00pm

Sunday, September 21st, 6:00pm

Coming to See Aunt Sophie a play by Arthur Feinsod, Chicago Premiere at the Chopin Theatre

CONVERSATION WITH...

Sunday, September 21st

4:00 – 6:00pm

Pre-show discussion with the playwright Arthur Feinsod and director Dale McFadden at the Chopin Theatre 1543 W. Division Street, Chicago

CONVERSATION WITH...

Thursday, September 18th

Ewa Wierzynska from the Polish History Museum talks about Jan Karski to International Women Associates

CONVERSATION WITH...

Thursday, September 18th

Wanda Urbanska President of Jan Karski Educational Foundation talks about Jan Karski to Polish American Chamber of Commerce

Events at Loyola University are free and open to the public • Registration info: www.jankarski.net/loyola

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Jan Karski 2014 International Conference on Memory and Responsibility

Friday, September 19th

9:00am – 7:00pm

Piper Hall, Lake Shore Campus

Saturday, September 20th

9:00am – 7:00pm

Quinlan Life Sciences Building, Lake Shore Campus

FILM SCREENING

Saturday, September 20th

3:00pm Documentary about Irena Sendler
In the Name of Their Mothers

5:00pm Feature Film directed by Robert Glinski
Stones for the Rampart
Loyola Damen Center Cinema, Lake Shore Campus

LIVE MUSIC

Saturday, September 20th, 8:00pm

Polish Music Concert at Mundelein Auditorium at 1020 W. Sheridan Road

Organized by
Bozena Nowicka McLees
Polish Studies Program
bmclees@luc.edu
773.508.2864

