

2021 Diversifying Clinical Psychology Day

Saturday, November 6th, 2021

What is it?

A virtual day to meet with faculty and students from 8 clinical psychology PhD programs in the Chicagoland area

Who is invited?

Anyone who is interested in learning more about a graduate degree in clinical psychology

What will I learn?

You will learn about the admissions/selection process for graduate school, program-specific training opportunities/information, and hear from current graduate students about their experiences

Anything else?

A specific focus on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) resources and initiatives will be emphasized throughout the day

Sample Schedule*

9:00-10:00: Welcome, Overview of Admissions and Decision Making, and Program Introductions

10:00-2:00: 30-minute break-out sessions with each individual program's faculty and students

2:00-3:00: Graduate Student Panel

3:00-4:00 Graduate Student Networking Event

* Students can choose to attend some or all of the sessions

Register: through this link to sign up for the event and receive zoom links

